LABOR HAS SEVENTEEN MEMBERS IN CONGRESS

One, Hughes of New Jersey, Is in Senate.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—Seventeen members of the Sixty-third Congress carry union cards and are members of the American Federation of Labor. Sixteen are Congressmen and one, William A. Hughes of New Jersey, is a Senator.

This is a gain of two over the labor union members in the last Congress, in spite of the defeat of W. B. Wilson of Pennsylvania and of Victor Berger of Milwaukee. The union Congressmen are: Sherwood of Ohio, Typographical Union; McDermott of Illinois, Telegraphers' Union; Buchanan of Illinois, Iron Workers; Lewis of Maryland, Coal Miners; Cary of Wisconsin, Telegraphers; Parr of Pennsylvania, Typographical; Mahon of New York, Hatters' Union; Smith of New York, Telegraphers; R. E. Lee of Pennsylvania, Blacksmiths; Roberts, Nevada, Metal Miners; Nolan, California, Iron Molders; Keating of Colorado, Typographical; Key of Ohio, Stenographers; Casey of Pennsylvania, Plumbers; Johnson, Washington, Typographical; and Helvering, Kansas, Street Carriers' Union.

LESS BOWEL TROUBLE IN HONOLULU

Honolulu people have found out that A SINGLE DOSE of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as compounded in Adler-Lika, the German aperient remedy, relieves constipation, sour stomach or gas on the stomach INSTANTLY. This simple mixture antiseptizes the digestive organs and draws off the impurities and it is surprising how QUICKLY it acts. The Hollister Drug Co.

Woodrow Wilson has framed a tentative cabinet slate. Among those considered are Dr. Harvey Wiley, Representative Palmer of Pennsylvania, Albert Burleson of Texas, Senator Gore of Oklahoma and Josephus Daniels of North Carolina. It is doubted if Bryan would accept a cabinet position if offered.

John T. Milliken, brother-in-law of Albert Patrick, whose sentence for murder of William M. Rice was commuted, disapproves of Patrick's proposed attempt to get a share of Rice's fortune. Milliken spent a fortune working for Patrick's release.

AUTO SPEED FIENDS KILL MANY IN N. Y.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Col. Edward S. Cornell, secretary of the National Highway Protective Association, seems to stand in just about the same relation to the joy rider as the goldfish did to the bad little boy, and as sure as fate he'll get them if they don't watch out.

That joy-riding is a species of criminal pastime for the reckless and bibulous, is Col. Cornell's opinion, and he is bending every effort to have bills passed and laws made that will secure the punishment of such persons.

Record of Deaths.
"Here is a nice record of killing and accidents," said he, as he handed a sheet of paper across his desk. "The number of accidents and deaths caused by careless driving of automobiles in New York city are greater than in any other city in the United States or in Europe. During the past year, up to date, there have been 1,159 injuries from careless driving and 178 persons killed."

"We have tabulated these affairs and find that this outrageous number of fatalities resulting from the conscientious driver are few."

"The joy-rider of the present time is a menace to the pedestrian. Right in the heart of New York city I have seen driving that was almost blood-curdling. The drivers are arrested for exceeding the speed limit, fined and turned loose to do just about as they please again. In fact, the man has run down an individual, and, perhaps, crippled his motor life, only pays a fine and goes scot free."

After Owners, Too.
"There has been a great cry against the careless chauffeur of the kind who takes his employer's car and goes on a joy ride. Many times this man not only destroys the car, but the occupants are killed. Often he leaves behind a wake of injured persons and sometimes dead ones. If possible, such a thing ought to be stopped. This kind of man is certainly dangerous, but, on the other hand, what about the man who owns his car and is far more reckless than the one he employs to do his driving?"

"The owner of an automobile gets an example for the chauffeur to follow. It rarely occurs that a driver will go at a breakneck speed with his employer in the car when the latter is not a speeder himself. We have found that 18 per cent of accidents and deaths have been caused by the owner when he was driving, and 62 per cent while the employee was at the wheel."

Evil of Intoxicants.
"It is generally taken for granted that the owner has a higher sense of respect for the law than the hireling, but the moment this man gets a few drinks he becomes as reckless as his driver."

"Only stringent methods will remedy this situation. When a person is killed by a careless chauffeur or owner, the latter should be severely punished. This is nothing less than manslaughter, and although the driver does not deliberately select his victims, he certainly knows that reckless driving, much drinking and a consequent loss of responsibility is dangerous to human life. Yet he deliberately drinks before and while driving. Such a man is nothing more nor less than a criminal. He commits a great offense that is being treated with a leniency that is not only a disgrace to the United States and New York city, but is a breeder of lawlessness to boot."

Should Require License.
"Every man or woman desiring to drive a car should be required to take out a license. Why should the owner of a car be exempt from such a law? He is really more responsible than the driver. To the man who is sane and intelligent in his driving the license is a protection. It is the lawless man who wishes to escape the license."

"Through a recalling of a license I believe that this killing and maiming would be greatly reduced. If a man kills a person when running an automobile, and it has been done through carelessness, let his license be taken away. The present method of recalling a license is not far-reaching enough."

"When the owner of a car violates the law and proves himself dangerous to human life while driving, revoke his license, arrest him, compel him to secure a competent man to drive for him. If an offense is committed while the chauffeur is driving this same car, take away that license, make it impossible for that car to go on the road again driven or owned by the person responsible for former crimes."

"Men are arrested for carrying weapons; surely these weapons in many cases are not more dangerous than the automobile in the hands of speed maniacs, intoxicated men and lawless persons. In such hands the automobile becomes a veritable juggernaut, and the condition is becoming worse every day in the year in New York."

BEWARE OF COLDS.

Children are much more likely to contract the contagious diseases when they have colds. Whooping cough, diphtheria, scarlet fever, and consumption are diseases that are often contracted when the child has a cold. That is why all medical authorities say beware of colds. ## MAN DROPS TO DEATH WHEN SPARROW PECKS AT HIM ON A ROOF

DETROIT, Nov. 28.—Battered by an English sparrow that flew in his face and sank its claws into his skin, Samuel Park, of New York, a stevedock, dropped to his death from a wire on which he was passing hand-over-hand from one roof to another. His back was broken. He died instantly.

Hundreds saw the death drop of the stevedock. They also saw him struggle for a moment to brush away with one hand the sparrow that gave him so much bother. Park either became weak or his hand slipped, but at any rate he released his grip on the wire and fell a distance of three stories. The bird was still fluttering in his face when he took his death plunge.

Park had been painting a sign three stories in the air. It was an easy job for him. He had often worked on the flaps of skyscrapers. Park climbed from the staging of a roof, on which he started to carry himself overhand to another building to get a brush.

He was midway between the two buildings when the sparrow struck his face. The condition of Park's face indicated that the bird had pecked him and clawed him severely. Park paused, and with one hand tried to beat away the bird. Then he suddenly dropped.
